AO 245B

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall be on home detention through the location monitoring program for the first six months of probation. During this time, he is restricted to his residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office including, but not limited to, activities related to the care and visiting of his mother and caring for his children and their needs.

The defendant shall maintain a telephone at his place of residence without any feature or service that would interfere with the operation of the location monitoring equipment for the period he participates in the location monitoring program.

The defendant may be required to wear a location monitoring device, which may include radio frequency, global positioning system or random tracking, at the discretion of the U.S. Probation office. He shall abide by all technology requirements. The defendant shall follow all location monitoring procedures specified by the probation office, and he shall pay the costs based on a co-payment fee established by the probation office. He must comply with the terms and conditions of the program for the first six months of his probation.

The defendant shall participate under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include testing, outpatient counseling and residential treatment. He shall abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment and shall bear the costs of the treatment to the extent he is able, as determined by the probation office. The defendant's portion of the cost is not to exceed $40.00 per month.

The defendant shall participate in a mental health assessment. If the assessment determines further treatment is necessary, he shall participate in treatment under the guidance and supervision of the probation officers. He shall bear the costs of his mental health treatment to the extent he is able as determined by the probation office. The costs should not exceed $40.00 per month.

The defendant shall perform 200 hours of community service as directed by the probation officer prior to the expiration of the term of his probation. The location of the community service shall be determined by the probation officer.
